

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start!
- Let's Explore!
- Let's Practice!
- Extension Activity
- Target Words
- Learning Points

Let's Start!

We all have a daily routine. What is yours?

Learning Outcome:

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Can Do Statements:

- I can talk about daily routines.
- I can express necessity or obligation.
- I can express possibility and expectation.

Ask your partner:

- When do you wake up?
- When do you check your e-mail?
- When do you have lunch?

Let's Explore!

John and Vanessa have a video chat to *catch up!

To “catch up” means to ask about recent events in the life of a person you know well.

Instructions: Read the dialogue aloud.

Vanessa: Hi John, how's it going on the cruise ship?

John: Great! How are you?

Vanessa: I'm good. Do you have a routine?

John: I get up around 8:00 and have a light breakfast in the morning. I might read the newspaper, or I could go for a jog before work.

Vanessa: Sounds nice.

John: I have lunch in the cafeteria at noon. Then, I check my e-mail. I should go the gym for an hour after work, but I sometimes do activities when we're at port. How is San Francisco?

Vanessa: School is fun, but I must wake up early. Classes start at 9. Sometimes I have to buy ingredients or research new recipes in the afternoon. In the evening, I often talk on the phone.

John: Ah, life as a student!

Let's Practice!

Vanessa talks about things she is *obliged to do.

Instructions: Select all the correct answers.

Select the sentences that show obligation.

*What you are "obliged" to do are things you have to do.

- ☐ I could go for a swim.
- ☐ I must get up early.
- ☐ I have to buy food for tonight's dinner.
- ☐ I have lunch in the cafeteria at noon.
- ☐ I have to work on Saturday.

Let's Practice!

John talks about his life on the *peninsula. In what order does he do each thing?

Instructions: Read the dialogue. Put the sentences in the correct order.

1. _____ a) I check my e-mail.
2. _____ b) I often read the newspaper.
3. _____ c) I get up around 8:00.
4. _____ d) I have lunch in the cafeteria at noon.
5. _____ e) I should go the gym for an hour after work.
6. _____ f) I have a light breakfast in the morning.

*A "peninsula" is a narrow piece of land. In this case, the peninsula is Baja, California.

"In what order" means in what position something is located (1st, 2nd, 3rd...).

Extension Activity

Play a guessing game about a famous person's daily routines.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Work with a partner.
- Choose a famous person your partner may know. Don't tell your partner who it is.
- Invent a daily routine for this person. The routines can be funny and creative.
- Write 5 sentences, like "In the morning, I..."
- Put clues into the daily routine to help your partner guess who it is.
- Ask your partner to guess who it is.
- Change roles and repeat.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write about daily routines.

☐☐

I use expressions of time.

☐☐

I make predictions.

☐☐

Target Words

- routine (noun): a series of things you do in a similar way each time
e.g. Do you have a routine on the cruise ship?
- activity (noun): something that someone does; an interest
e.g. I like to do activities when we're at port.
- hour (noun): 60 minutes
e.g. I should go to the gym for an hour after work.
- to wake up (verb): to stop sleeping
e.g. I must wake up early to get to class in time.
- morning (noun): time of the day from around 5:00 - 12:00 a.m. e.g. I get up around 8:00 and have a light breakfast in the morning.
- afternoon (noun): time of the day from around 12:00 - 6:00 p.m. e.g. Sometimes I have to buy ingredients or look up new recipes in the afternoon.
- port (noun): the place where a cruise ship stops
e.g. I sometimes do activities when we're at port.

Learning Points

Talking About Daily Routines

Daily routines are things you do every day.

When you talk about daily routines, you use the Present tense and a preposition of time like at, until, by and from... to.

You use expressions of time like On Saturdays... to say that you do things on a regular basis.

Preposition or Expression of Time	Use	Example
at	a specific time	I wake up at 7:00 a.m.
until	a period of time leading up to a specific time	I'm in class until 3:00 in the afternoon.
in	in or during a period of time	I read the newspaper in the morning.
from...to	the beginning and ending time of an activity	I have classes from 9:00 to 3:00 every day.
on (Sundays)...	on the same day of the week	I don't work on Sundays.

Should, Could, Have to, Must

Should, could, might and have to and must are modals.

You use should, could and might to give advice, show possibility or expectation, or make a suggestion.

You use have to and must to show necessity.

The modals are followed by a verb in the base form. The verb does not change.

Examples

- I should go to the gym for an hour after work.
- I could go for a jog before work.
- I must wake up early.
- Sometimes I have to buy ingredients or research new recipes in the afternoon.

